FOREWORD

The proposed inter-state game between the SSMFL and the VFA will not take place this season.

The SSMFL's executive received a letter from the VFA this week saying it had no objection to a game being played between the SSMFL and a VFA club. However, they were not prepared to field a combined VFA side.

League delegates voted to postpone the end-of-season trip because of the short time available to raise finance and because they felt a game against a VFA club wouldn't provide the league with the required "mileage."

The League will now investigate the possibility of playing a mid-season interstate game next year against the VFA, NSW or the ACT.

It is still intended that the game will be played on a reciprocal basis with the SSMFL making the trip next season and their opponents coming to Perth the following year.

The idea of an interstate fixture has a lot of merit and can only enhance the League's already healthy reputation.

There is no doubt that the VFA would be able to field a superior side to the SSMFL but the experience our players would derive from such a game and the publicity the League would receive would compensate for any defeat that may be inflicted, no matter how large.

In addition, an interstate trip would provide clubs with another bargaining weapon in their recruiting programmes. The attraction of being selected in an interstate touring team would entice many borderline league footballers to the competition.

NSW and ACT representative teams would not be as powerful as the VFA but would still be worthy opponents. Little is known about the ACT competition but we do know it fathered one of the VFL's all-time greats, Alex Jesaulenko. Former South Fremantle Champion, Ross Bowe, also enjoyed outstanding success there and Canberra is the regular venue of VFL exhibition and pre-season games.

Football in NSW has flourished in recent years with the arrival of first class coaches such as Gordon Bowman (the only man to play in premiership teams in four states), Alan Joyce and Austin Robertson. And it's been a home-away-from-home for "exiled" West Australians and Victorians with John Northey (Richmond), Ken Spencer (West Perth), Gary Vincent (Subiaco), and Russell Argent (East Perth) all making names for themselves in the Sydney League.

TODAY'S GAMES:

Second and third sides, Kenwick and Gosnells, meet in the day's outstanding game at MILLS PARK. A win for both sides is imperative if they're to secure second place on the ladder. Kenwick will enjoy a height advantage but Gosnells may be a fraction more talented.

Kwinana will encounter difficulties with the small GWYNNE PARK ground in their clash with Armadale. But they have the ability to play top football and if they can sustain it for four quarters, they should win.

Canning reach the crossroads of their finals bid when they meet Maddington at MADDINGTON OVAL. Canning's form in recent weeks has been outstanding and they must win to stay in contention for a place in the four. However, Maddington look almost invincible in this competition and will win.

Thornlie can salvage some lost prestige when they meet Kalamunda at THORNIE OVAL. However, the Kougars will have a single aim for the remainder of the season and that will be to notch their first points and complacency against them could be costly.

Kelmscott will have trouble against Mandurah on the small MANDURAH OVAL but it's doubtful that the homeground advantage will be sufficient for the Seasideers to cause an upset.

TIGER TALES

A rather complacent Canning side easily accounted for Mandurah last Sunday avenging our first round defeat with a comfortable 10 goal victory over the Seaside. After establishing our authority early in the game and looking a 20 goal better side, we fell into a much too familiar pattern of "indifference" to the game, content to maintain a sufficiently safe margin over our opponents. It's simple football arithmetic that if this attitude is continued today against the to date unbeaten Maddington, they will literally carve the Tigers up into very small pieces. The message then is quite simple — to start and finish the game with the same frame of mind that existed against Gosnells. Such an attitude will result in success, it very nearly always does, so let's have a go Tigers, and shake the Bulls up on their own turf, victory will give us an armchair ride to the finals.

Greg Sladden, out of the league side through injury, was able to watch his charges for a full game last Sunday. Playing without much luck, however, they went down by a small margin to a good side in Mandurah. Supporters of the club must be wondering when Ian Campbell is to make his league debut, Ian, a talented youngster from Tasmania, has impressed since his arrival at the club and is sure to be a success when given the opportunity.

It was very pleasing last week to see several of our stalwarts of previous years at the game. Life member and ex-president Trevor Parker saw his old side play for the first time in several years and was amazed at the change in supporter structure of the club. These "old boys" have vivid memories of the Tigers when we were the top dogs. Let's bring a few more back to the club by showing that we are, as our theme song goes — "The Tigers of Old".

TALK OF BULL

Last Sunday's games resulted in convincing wins for both teams and are very heartening when it is considered that in the league team we were short staffed in the ruck without Dennis Cometti and Colin Walker and in the Seconds where illness and injuries took their toll of players. Two highlights in the league game were "Jake" Butler's 16 goals and Stephen Jancey's promising debut. Best players in two good combinations were: — LEAGUE: Ted Weir, Barry Stockden and John Duthie.

SECONDS: Doug Bushby, Les Jarvis, David Reynolds and 'Gus' Reynolds. Congratulations to all players.

Socially speaking the "Bulls Ball" is on the 16th July, and while there has been an excellent response from the players, some members seem to be slow in responding and I suggest if you don't want to miss out you get your orders in early as we don't want to disappoint anyone but first in first served. You'll be lucky to get such a good night, elsewhere with a chicken meal, champagne and drinks, good band and entertainment for $20 a double.

Congratulations to Rod and Mrs Mohr on the birth of their son and also to Alan Banks on attaining his majority.

Today's games against Canning are another ball game and I urge you to get behind your coaches and give a 100% effort for a full 100 minutes.

Win, lose or draw we invite all Canning players and supporters to stay behind after the game to enjoy our hospitality and discuss the game.

E.P. & B.P.

THE HAWKS

It was encouraging to see both our teams join the winning list again with a double victory registered against Thornlie last Sunday. Although the league side registered four points it was not a convincing win by any means. The secret for our continued success will be our ability to run on and play a full four quarters instead of our spasmodic efforts displayed in our last three or four matches. Best players for the league were Sid Wilesdale, who played a courageous game and initiated many constructive passages of play and Norm Barratt who set the example to be followed by putting in another outstanding performance.

RESERVES: Congratulations to every player for a wonderful team effort. With a little more accuracy in front of the goals we would have won by twentyfive goals instead of seventeen. It was good to see all players running on and backing up and with more concentration we will definitely be the top side in the competition. Best players were B. Lester, L. Bain and R. Arnold.

Special Note: The Clubs Bumper Board Competition for the league players was introduced last week and will run for eight weeks. Club sponsors have donated $200 Prize Money consisting of first prize $50, four prizes of $25 and three prizes of $15. The results of points rewarded after last weeks game are as follows: — S. Websdale 6, T. Wilkes 4, K. Reynolds 4, N. Barrett 3, R. James 3 and K. Smith 1.

SOCIAL:

For the first time this season the club has organised a Sportsmans Night to be held at the Wintercourt Gosnells Hotel on July 28 from 7.30 P.M. until 11.30 P.M. An excellent night of entertainment is assured as we have Trevor Jenkins as comper and the sports panel will be made up of stars and personalities including Fred Castledine, Johnny Miller, Ross Edwards, George James, Ray Sleath and Graham Campbell. Food and drinks will be provided for a realistic $10.00 and we urge you to join us for a really entertaining night. Tickets are available from Frank Sochacki Phone 96 2224 or Colin Reynolds Phone 96 3096. This function is for males only.

H.H.

Special Note:

As the Social Club has organised the Sportsmans Night for males only, we feel the ladies of the Club deserve a special night for ladies only. The club is only too ready to assist in the organisation of such a function and we invite suggestions of a suitable function and venue from the ladies associated with the Club.

MIGHTY ROYALS

Two hard fought wins by Kenwick were recorded against Kwinana on Sunday — the first by the League Side down at Kwinana. Both coaches should have been pleased with the results especially when the sides fought back after letting the opposition take control. During certain quarters of the game.

LEAGUE: The scores at the end of the game probably did not indicate the closeness of the match as it was played at a fast and furious pace. It was in the second quarter that Kenwick really turned on powerhouse football and kicked 9 goals, while holding Kwinana to a solitary goal. With Jim Gilbert (8 goals) firing well at full forward, Gary Worthington working hard in the centre and Alfie Stal playing himself into top form. The Royals bombarded the Kwinana defence and opened up a good lead. To Kwinana's credit they came back fighting (not only literally) and made it the hardest physical game we have played all year. But our fitness prevailed and with the backline working solidly, particularly Kevin Wilson, Barry Nicholas and Dusty Dillon, The Royals continued to attack through the efforts of Graham Nicholas and Mike Strang. The final siren saw the Royals run out winners by a well earned 45 points. We were missing Kim Lofts and Leon Ryan from the original side and with these players hopefully available for the match against Gosnells we can go into Sunday's game determined to make amends for our first round defeat by the Hawks.

SECONDS: The Seconds game was a real thriller as it was only through our fitness and will to win that we finally overcame an improved Kwinana side. It took the Royals right up to the last quarter before they hit the front and then the lead see-sawed during the early stages. The game lacked its usual brilliant players, but none tried harder all day than Neil Bennenne and Wayne Hill. There were many hard clashes and it was good to see the side team together when trouble began to stir. Changes were made early to try and instil life into the side, but it was the players themselves that worked at their own game and scored important 4 points.

SOCIAL: 'Boys Nite' — Thursday 8th July, at the Clubrooms. For $5.00 enjoy a great evening.

O.D.

KALAMUNDA

Well Done John Wilson.

100 games today, apart from giving great service on the field John has assisted as a Committee member and given his best at all times for the Club. Clubmen such as John are a credit to Australian Rules Football and command respect as a man. From all members John congratulations, stay around a little longer and be a part of our challenge to lift Kalamunda Districts and when we are successful you will know you have performed well and you will have the satisfaction of watching future generations playing our game at Kalamunda with fond memories of our battling years.

What a dedicated side Maddington are, their play was perfection. We must learn from teams such as this and in doing so we can only improve in ourselves.

Reserves your effort last week was the best performance I have seen in two years, every player gave of himself 100%, the result was not an indication of our attitude, keep that up and we will win games, perhaps this week eh! Players stand tall we need victories, only you can achieve these. Back Ken up and give your full support to his dedicated attitude. Kalamunda lets take Thornlie.

IN THE LIONS LAIR

LEAGUE:

Thanks players for a great effort last week — it was perhaps the most encouraging display for the season so far. Personal grats to Steven Elliott for a hard-working performance in his first league game — his desire to win the ball, and to do well served him well — keep it up Steve. This week we must do well for the club again — it'll be hard — but worth it when it's done. Give it what you've got players — 100 minutes that's all it takes.

Best Players: G. Denton (Great performance from the Club's senior player), S. Whyte (again what more can be said), A. Osborne (does the hard stuff — and does it willingly), P. Gurney (gave the forward line bit and purpose), A. Payne (dependable all day on a H.F.

RESERVES:

Well beaten on the day by a side they completely annihilated in the first round. Certainly not a pleasing game when with half a season to play the final four is still a REAL thing. Best Players A. Zanetti (on his way back to the league side) G. Winston (another hyper-steady game), J. Daly (not beaten all day), A. Nie (likes to play football).

Thought for the Week: "When you think you've done enough — is when you start to do a bit."

Supporters don't forget the Junior Cabaret on August 7th get the details from Bruce Ahern and make up a party.

DEMONS DIGEST

'NOT FOR NIX - IN '76!'

Today we are at home again, (why the season's fixtures cannot be arranged on an alternate home, away basis is beyond me) this time as hosts to Kwinana F.C., the Knights. All Knights are invited around the table for a chat and swift 'arf, after the game.

At Gwynne Park last week against Kelmescott the Demons came within an ace of causing the upset of the day. Only the now almost legendary third quarter plague stopped the Demons from pulling off a great win. The final quarter saw a fightback by the Demons, that gave all Armadale supporters a renewed pride in this club. Only Kelmescott's big points score gave them the nod, for the goal scores were even. All players contributed to the game but none more so than Maxie Van Helden, Gary Greer, and Peter Wilkes. I must mention Stevie Erceg, for his first-up league game was good. Bad luck fellas, it was a great effort.

The Reserves put up their best performance of the season in going down to Kelmescott. I don't know what coach-for-the-day Dennis Lee whispered in their ears, but it wasn't sweet nothings, that's for sure! In this game also, every player lifted his ability, attitude, thinking and talking. The best players in this game were Brian Barry, Ian Lengren, Wayne Hand, with top performance coming from Roger Hall. Carry on this vein today fellas, and you'll chalk up a good win.

The Under 18's continued their relentless drive for the flag last week with yet another win, this time over Gosnells. Best Players were 'Veg' Fulgrave, Rod Nairn, Vince Vlasich (another one of Joe's) and 'Tracker' Sheppard. To those players that don't get a mention each week, well done fellas, for without you there would be no team as strong as yours.

We must not let the season go by without thanking the ladies who week after week provide a first class refreshment service for on and all. To 'Mick' Alexander and her band of willing workers, our sincere thanks and appreciation.

NOTICES: Annual Wind-up this year will be on Saturday 2nd October at the Cannington Central Social Room. The evening will include three course meal, unlimited drinks, band, and trophy presentations. See the 'Sarge' of Rob's Army for your ticket (s).

THE BULLDOGS

Although both sides gained another 4 points against an improved Armadale last week the spectators can be excused for thinking they were at a Sunday School Picnic.

If the Bulldogs wish to be top-dog they must realise that no opponent can be treated lightly.

In the league game Eddie Donnes, at full-back controlled his area all day and proved just too-much for the Armadale forwards. Another determined effort was put in by Lindsay Tann whose efforts were rewarded with 5 well-earned goals. Paul Hansen showed a welcome return to form and capped of a good display with 4 goals.

Best players in the reserves were Michael Johnson, Tony Bewsker and Ian Clark.

SOCIAL NOTES:

All members who enjoyed the Cabaret on 25th June join us in extending our thanks to the ladies. Special courtesies are extended to renowned models Legs Scari, Cutie Hilderbrandt, Goldie Lawrence, Robert Bradley and Bobbie Scari for donating their valuable time.

JULY 17th. is the next date to remember. If you missed the fun at the fashion parade don't miss this next Cabaret. Get your tickets early.

CAR RAFFLE. You have to be in it to win it! Lend your support to our club and Pud Callow and get those tickets sold — pronto.

THE KNIGHTS NOTES

Last week I reminded players of both sides that four full quarters of football are required to beat top sides. The seconds almost pulled off a tough game but failed for about ten minutes of the final quarter to go down by 16 points. They are now-starting to show their true capabilities and are sure to improve. Best players were Ted Riseberry, G. Howe and J. Phillips.

The league side lapsed badly in the second quarter to go down to a strong Kenwick side by seven goals. They fought back strongly in the third quarter and if not for inaccurate kicking the game may have finished a lot closer. It is a credit to both teams that they never stop trying and I'm sure the results will start swinging our way shortly. Best players in the league were D. Roberts, M. Lloyd, D. Baskerville and N. Vanheythuysen.

Congratulations to John and Margaret Legena on the birth of their baby girl and Brian and Rose Keep on their son's arrival.

SOCIAL NOTES:

Cabaret tickets are available for 23rd July from your social committee. "Mens Night" Friday 9th July is a must for members and supporters. Raffle tickets in the Car Raffle are still available. Membership fees are now due.

Today we travel to Armadale and I hope we can pull off another double. It won't be easy so let's knuckle down to the job and enjoy a victory drink afterwards.
